Aristocratic circles are deeply chagrined by the arrest to-day of Baron von Eben, the owner of the vast barony of Schlagenthin Arnawalde, who is charged with assaulting two young girls. It is announced that the Baron's own son will be the chief accuser at the trial. Sir Francis De Winton has censured Mr. Thompson, agent of the British East Africa empany, for his recent insult to the German flag, and has sent an apology to the German Government, which the latter has accepted. BERLIN, 5th October, Von Moltke, who celebrates his ninetieth

the United States for reciprocity concessions | Strachan served on the general staff in the Austrain and French wars, and has lately been commanding at Stettin. The appointment, which In his speech at Gloucester to night, refor is particularly popular with the general staff, is ring to the new United States tariff, Sir said to be entirely due to the masterly way in Emperor.

BOMBAY, 15th October. The Zanzibar correspondent of the Bombay Gazette sands particulars of the recent massacrewest out with twenty tons of machinery to esa house and their rifles stolen. They resolved to escape, and walked out of the house in the early morning to the gates, and ordered the sentry to open, which he did so slowly that they pushed him aside and threw down the bars of the door. The soldiers who followed then fired at them and killed four of them. The others ran to the thick grass, where they made a stand with their revolvers. Four of them. however, were killed, only one succeeding in escaping, though badly wounded, to the British settlement.

SLAVERY IN EAST AFRICA. BOMBAY, 15th October. The Zanzibar correspondent of the Bombay Gusette says that a slave dhow captured by Lieutenant Greville had thirty-four males and Banksten females aboard. Most of the males were boys between eight and twelve years of age. After the capture of the dhow and the release of the slaves, two native boys of Lieutenant Greville's crew and two of the female slaves was agreed to. The roung slaves were all sent to the mission at Mombassa.

The peaswere removed from the vase by Mr. Pettigrew the Librarian to the British Museum, and by him given to various friends to-plant and rear—a feat successfully accomplished. The produce was said to be edible and of excellent flavour, consequently the earlier mu amy pea became pretty generally cultivited. The kind, however, we more particularly allude to here is the one introduced into Europe in 1871. An officer in the British army (Major-General Alexander Anderson happened during that year to visit the tombs of the Pharaohs, and in the course of his explorations to come noross some seeds of peas and wheat in the hands of the mummles, which he carefully preserved until he reached Europe. He gave seeds of the pea to a friend in Guernsey, and others elsewhere. The Guernsey friend succeeded in raising plants from the seeds, which flowered very free-Father Flering of Clonmel, has been accested by. This, then, is reputed to be the origin of the mummy pes, which has found its way into hundreds of gardens during the current year. In habit of growth it differs from all of the cultivated pear the upper part of the stem being broadly fasciated or flattened, and the lower part round and very slender. The flowers, which are white, pink, and crimson, are borne at the top of the stem, forming a dense head of blossom, extramely pretty to look upon. The upper part, out off with a foot of the main stem attached. makes a lovely object when placed in a vace, and on that account the mummy posis sure to be largely grown in the future.
